Councilwoman Cynthia (Cindy) Drago

Councilwoman Drago is committed to her chosen hometown of Oviedo. She has chaired Great Day in the Country, served as vice president of the Oviedo Woman's Club as well as chairing their Philanthropic Committee and is now Vice President of Helpful Hands, Inc., a non-profit organization assisting families in financial crisis in Oviedo.

Mrs. Drago attended the Institute of Elected Municipal Officials and the Advanced Institute of Elected Municipal Officials, and is a graduate of Leadership Seminole class #21. She chairs the Seminole Advisory Board for CBC (Community Based Care of Central Florida) and is a board member of the Tri County League of Cities, a member of Seminole Community Alliance and the Friends of Lake Jessup. Mrs. Drago is also the alternate representative for the City at Metroplan Orlando.

Her direct involvement with the City is evidenced by her service on the Oviedo Charter Review Committee, 2010, as well as her participation and support for the programs hosted and/or supported by City of Oviedo.

Mrs. Drago is also committed to education, supported by her appointment by former Governor Charlie Crist to the Seminole State College District Board of Trustees for a term beginning July 2009 through May 2013. At this time she serves as the Vice Chair of that Board and was nominated by her fellow trustees in 2010 to represent their interests to the Seminole State Foundation Board.

Mrs. Drago was born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and attended Broward State College as a business major. She served 23 years with the Fort Lauderdale Police Department where she held progressive levels of responsibility dealing with the training of officers, members of the community and college students. She served as the Florida Department of Law Enforcement representative for the department, managed the College Internship Program, coordinated the first Citizens Police Academy, and advised police officers about their career paths.

Councilwoman Drago lives in Oviedo with her husband, Chuck and their three children, Christina, Lindsay and Michael. She is the proud grandmother of Zachary and Carson.
