Mayor Dominic Persampiere

Mayor Dominic Persampiere has held the council offices of Deputy Mayor and Council representative for Group IV. He has been a driving force on the Oviedo City Council for the past ten years. Mayor Persampiere also served on the Land Planning Agency board in 1999/2000 prior to winning his seat on Council in September, 2000.

Mayor Persampiere's business interests are characterized as entrepreneurial and investor related. He attended Suffolk Community College and can be found pledging his time to the Oviedo Economic Development Committee, the Oviedo-Winter Springs Chamber of Commerce and Leadership Seminole. He is a yearly sponsor of the Oviedo Little League Challenger Division.

In his off time, Mayor Persampiere likes to golf (although he says he doesn't golf very well), watch College Football and cheer for his favorite NASCAR driver. He and wife Debbie have two daughters, Amanda and Krysta.
