Did You Know?

Did you know employment opportunities with the City of Oviedo are posted on the City's website?

To view current employment opportunities, visit the City's website at www.cityofoviedo.net, click Employment, and new window will open. Click the Available Positions link.

Equal Employment Opportunity

It is the policy of the City of Oviedo to consider applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, religion, creed, national origin, age, disability (unless the disability precludes performance of the essential functions of the position), marital/family or veteran status, or any other legally protected status.

Drug-Free and Tobacco-Free Workplace

The City of Oviedo is a drug-free and tobacco-free workplace. When an applicant is offered employment, it is conditional upon successfully passing a nicotine and/or drug test which screens for the presence of nicotine, controlled substances, narcotic drugs, nicotine and alcohol. Refusal to take the test, or failure to pass the test according to minimum standards, is cause for disqualification. If employed, the City may require subsequent drug tests. Refusal or failure to pass the test according to minimum standards, will result in termination.
